MERGER ANNOUNCEMENT M/26/061 – KKR/INTEGER HOLDINGS

Section 21 of the Competition Act 2002

Competition and Consumer Protection Commission clears proposed acquisition whereby KKR & Co. Inc. through Armstrong Parent, Inc., would acquire indirect sole control of Integer Holdings Corporation.

25 September 2026

The Competition and Consumer Protection Commission has today cleared the proposed transaction whereby KKR & Co. Inc., through Armstrong Parent, Inc., would acquire indirect sole control of Integer Holdings Corporation. The proposed transaction was notified under the Competition Act 2002, as amended, on 9 September 2026.

The Commission has formed the view that the proposed transaction will not substantially lessen competition in any market for goods or services in the State. The Commission will publish the reasons for its determination on its website no later than 60 working days after the date of the determination and after allowing the parties the opportunity to request that confidential information be removed from the published version.

Additional Information

KKR & Co. Inc. is a global investment firm that provides alternative asset management, capital markets and insurance solutions. In the State, undertakings controlled by KKR & Co. Inc. are active in a range of sectors, including technology, healthcare, financial services, infrastructure, telecommunications, logistics, consumer products and media.

Armstrong Parent, Inc. is a special purpose vehicle established for the purpose of the Proposed Transaction and is indirectly majority owned by insurance vehicles and accounts managed by KKR.

Integer Holdings Corporation is a medical device contract development and manufacturing organisation involved in the design, development, manufacturing, testing, packaging, labelling, storage, handling, distribution, marketing, and export of medical devices.