Argos recall Nevaboard

📅 DECEMBER 18, 2015

Argos have conducted additional testing on all components of their NEVABOARD product, sold by Argos in the UK and Ireland. As a result of these tests, Argos have identified a safety concern and have therefore taken the decision to recall the NEVABOARD, catalogue number 455/7669

The mains plug and transformer do not fully comply with the required technical standards and could pose a risk of electrocution.
