Baker Ross Limited recalls 'Christmas Flashing Bracelets'

📅 OCTOBER 19, 2020

Baker Ross Limited is carrying out a recall of 'Pack of four flashing Christmas Bracelets (product code AV636)'.

The risk is: "the product fails to meet safety requirements. The battery compartment can easily be opened, or could break, giving access to the batteries. A child may put the batteries in their mouth, which could damage the child's gastrointestinal tract or cause the child to choke."

There were 20 packs of four sold to 16 customers in the Republic of Ireland. This product was sold through the Baker Ross website and catalogue between April 2019 and June 2020.

What to do:

If you believe that you may have purchased an affected product, discontinue use immediately and keep it out of the reach of children and pets.

Baker Ross Limited will be sending a product safety notice for this product to 16 customers on the week beginning 26 October 2020.

If you still have this product, please contact Baker Ross Limited at recalls@bakerross.co.uk for a refund and guidance on how to dispose of the item appropriately. Baker Ross Limited apologizes for the inconvenience caused.
