Clementoni recalls Blooming Flower Rattle

 DECEMBER 3, 2021

Clementoni is carrying out a voluntary recall of their Blooming Flower Rattle.

The affected products have EAN codes 8005125173266 and 8005125173600.

A safety issue has been identified with the affected products where small parts could break off and be swallowed, presenting a choking risk for small children or possibly cause damage to the child's digestive system.

There were approximately 2100 affected products sold in the Republic of Ireland through Smyths Toys, Tesco Ireland, and Ken Black Toys.

What to do:

If you purchased one of these products, please discontinue use immediately, and return to your place of purchase for a full refund.
