Dealz / Poundland recall 'Spooky Projection Torch'

📅 OCTOBER 30, 2012

Dealz is carrying out a voluntary recall of the 'Spooky Projection Torch' sold in Dealz and Poundland stores. A manufacturing error has been identified which could cause the unit to overheat. The torch does not need to be on for this to occur.

The barcode of affected products is: 5025066834999

What to do:

If you have purchased this product stop using it immediately and return it to any Dealz or Poundland store for a full refund. Concerned consumers can contact Dealz customer service.
