Horwood Homewares Ltd recalls Stellar Classic 5-Piece Saucepan Sets

📅 SEPTEMBER 25, 2025

Horwood Homewares Ltd is carrying out a recall of Stellar Classic 5-Piece Saucepan Sets.

The product presents a burns and injury risk. The welding on the handle of the long-handled saucepans in the set may weaken and the top left weld may detach during use which may lead the consumer to drop the product and sustain a burn or injury.

Products and batches affected are as follows:

- S1F4B Stellar Classic Deep 5 piece set – Batch 357, Batch 359, Batch 363
- S1F5B Stellar Classic Deep 5 piece set – Batch 354

The product codes S1F4B and S1F5B can be found on the packaging label. The batch codes can be found printed on the base of each saucepan.

There are approximately 400 products sold in the Republic of Ireland. The products were sold in Arnotts and Brown Thomas from July 2024 to 01 September 2025.

What To Do:

Consumers should stop using the product immediately and return it for a replacement or refund to Horwood Homewares.

In the case of a replacement, Horwood Homewares will arrange for free collection and replacement of your cookware set.
