Hyundai recalls Santa Fe CM models

 DECEMBER 5, 2017

Hyundai Ireland has issued a voluntary recall in respect of certain models of the Santa Fe CM models. The production date range for the affected vehicles is between 01 September 2011 and 02 November 2011.

Hyundai have identified that due, to a routing problem, the affected vehicles primary fuel line could fail and therefore needs to be replaced with a modified version.

A total of 122 affected vehicles have been placed on the Irish market.

What to do

Hyundai Ireland will be contacting all affected consumers by letter, in order to arrange a free of charge repair for the affected vehicles. If you have any questions in relation to this recall, please feel free to contact Hyundai Ireland (01) 460 9800.
