IKEA KRITTER and SNIGLAR junior beds

 AUGUST 16, 2013

IKEA are voluntarily recalling a number of the KRITTER and SNIGLAR junior beds. A metal rod connecting the guardrail to the bed frame could break and expose sharp metal edges. Customers are advised to check the date stamp on the label attached to either the headboard or the underside of the bed and only beds within the following range are affected:

KRITTER (YYWW) 1114 to 1322

SNIGLAR (YYWW) 1114 to 1318

What to do:

Customers with an affected product are asked to visit their local IKEA store or contact IKEA customer services on 1890 876707 at the earliest opportunity to receive a repair kit free of charge or alternatively an exchange or refund.
