IKEA recalls Busa children's folding tent

 OCTOBER 6, 2011

IKEA is recalling the Busa children's folding tent (article number: 101-920-08) due to risk of injury.

The steel wire frame of the tent can break during use. This can cause sharp wire ends to protrude through the tent fabric, creating a risk of a laceration or puncture injury to a child playing with the tent.

The BUSA children's tent has been sold at IKEA since 30 June 2011.
