IKEA recalls FÖRSTÅ coffee/tea maker

📅 MARCH 4, 2011

IKEA is carrying out a voluntary recall of the FÖRSTÅ coffee/tea maker

This is due to the risk of pressure from the metal holder on the glass pot causing it to break unexpectedly, posing a burn and laceration hazard. These products have been on sale since September 2010.

IKEA has received 20 reports of the glass pot breaking, including twelve reports of burn injuries from spilt coffee/tea and one report of laceration injury.
