Inkari B.V. recalls Inkari Plush Alpacas (Mini, Small, Medium, Large)

📅 AUGUST 19, 2025

Inkari B.V. is carrying out a recall of Inkari Plush Alpacas (Mini, Small, Medium, Large).

The risk reported to the CCPC is choking. The toy's small plastic eyes may detach creating a potential choking hazard for young children.

The brand is Inkari. All designs and batches are affected. The recall excludes XXL Alpacas as these do not use detachable eyes.

There are approximately 794 affected products in the Republic of Ireland. The product was sold between 01 November 2020 and 31 July 2025 via Inkari (700 units), Amazon (70 units) and FineOaks Alpacas (24 units).

What to do:

Customers should stop using the product immediately.

In order to obtain a full refund, please contact Inkari at support@inkari.com. For further information on the recall, please consult the 🔗 Inkari Recall Notice.
