Mamas & Papas recalls child car seats

📅 DECEMBER 7, 2016

After extensive investigation, independent testing, and risk assessment Mamas & Papas have issued a product recall in relation to child car seats procured by Mamas & Papas from Jeenay (UK) Limited.

Aureus, Nembus, Altair,
Mamas & Papas Group 123

The approval number is 04 44596 and should match the label on the reverse of the seat as shown here.

The following models are affected:

Aureus 123

Altair 123

Nembus 123 and

M & P 123

These seats were sold by Mamas & Papas to Asda, Tesco and Shop Direct for sale to consumers by these retailers. None of the affected car seats have been on sale since March 2015.

What to do:

If you have purchased the above seat, you should immediately stop using the product and call Mamas & Papas dedicated free helpline on 1-800-947-241.

Mamas & Papas advise that a designated courier service will collect the car seat or bring the car seat into a Mamas & Papas store for a refund or a suitable replacement product in either case. If you purchased your car seat from Asda, Tesco or Shop Direct, please still contact Mamas & Papas directly.
