Mamas & Papas recalls 'Children's footwear'

📅 NOVEMBER 12, 2018

Mamas & Papas are carrying out a voluntary recall of three styles of children's footwear.

Fringe Mocassin Gold
S912300

Suede Detail Shoe
S912CN7

Pom Pom Shoe
S912GE9

All sold between June 2017 - October 2018.

This recall impacts the products and product numbers listed above only. The safety concern is that due to a potential problem with the tassels/pom-poms, they could become detached presenting a choking hazard to young children.

What to do:

Approximately 96 units of the above-listed products were sold on the Irish market through a combination of in-store and online sales. If you believe that you have any of these products, then consumers are advised to stop using them immediately and keep them out of the reach of children. You should return it to any Mamas & Papas store where a full refund will be provided.
