Recall of Next Girls Fish Eva Sandals

 JUNE 9, 2015

Next are recalling their younger girls Fish Eva sandals. A potential safety issue has been identified with the product whereby in certain circumstances the 3D eyes could become detached and thus present a choking hazard for young children. The model number is 829-651 and they were sold in junior shoe sizes 3-12 intended for children aged between 1-6 years.

What to do:

If you have purchased these sandals please return them immediately to any Next store for a full refund. Next are writing directly to consumers who purchased through Next Directory to arrange for their refunds.
