River Island recalls River Island Baby Boys Blue Quilted Snowsuit

 DECEMBER 19, 2023

River Island is carrying out a recall of a River Island Baby Boys Blue Quilted Snowsuit.

The risk associated with the product is choking. The silver poppers on the snowsuit may become loose and detach causing small parts. If a child puts the small part in their mouth, it can block airways and cause choking.

The brand is River Island. The product number is 458872 which can be found printed on the care label inside the garment. The barcode and batch number are unknown.

There are approximately 9 affected products in the Republic of Ireland. The product was sold by River Island from August 2023 to November 2023.

What to do:

If you believe that you may have purchased an affected product, discontinue use immediately and keep it out of the reach of children.

For both instore and online purchases, please return the whole product to your nearest River Island store for a refund. If customers have any further queries please visit the River Island dedicated recalls page <https://www.riverisland.com/ie/product-recall> or contact the River Island customer service team directly via email at customer.services@riverisland.com
