Stokke AS recalls Steps Bouncer, Steps Newborn Set

 AUGUST 7, 2019

Stokke AS is carrying out a voluntary recall of Steps Bouncer, Steps Newborn Set. Consumers who own both the Steps Bouncer or Steps Newborn Set and the Steps Chair set may experience the bouncer not attaching properly to the chair despite the locking indicator turning green. A person leaning on the bouncer while attached to the chair may cause the bouncer to detach from the chair and cause a potential fall hazard.

This recall affects over 300 units in the Republic of Ireland.
