Tesco Ireland recalls “Munchkin Waterpede” bath toy

📅 JULY 30, 2018

Tesco Ireland are carrying out a voluntary recall of their “Munchkin Waterpede” product which was on sale in stores from November 2015 until February 2018.

The safety concern is that the bubble section can break exposing small beads and posing a possible small parts hazard to young children. There have been no reported injuries, but the product is being voluntarily recalled.
