

PRODUCT RECALLS

TJX Ireland Unlimited Company t/a TK Maxx and Homesense recalls Childrens Swim Vests

📅 AUGUST 28, 2025

TJX Ireland Unlimited Company t/a TK Maxx and Homesense is carrying out a recall of Childrens Swim Vests.

The risk reported to the CCPC is drowning. The product has an incorrectly applied CE mark as it has not been tested to the required safety standards.

Patterns and designs may include: whales, dinosaurs, sharks, starfish, unicorns, crabs, fish, juice floats or seahorses. Swim vest may or may not have goggles attached.

The Product codes on the price ticket and receipt are the following:

819852, 819853, 819854,819855,819856, 819857, 819864, 819865, 819866, 819867, 819868, 819869,819870,819871, 819884, 819885, 819886, 819887, 819888, 819889, 819904, 819905, 819906, 819907,819908, 819909,819910, 819911, 819912, 819913, 819914, 819915

There are approximately 153 affected products in the Republic of Ireland. The product was sold between April and August 2025.

What to do:

Customers should stop using the product immediately and return it to any TK Maxx or Homesense store for a full refund.

If customers have any further queries in relation to this recall, please email TK Maxx at customerservice@tjxeurope.com or call on 01 2476126.