Universal Honda Ltd recalls certain passenger vehicles

 SEPTEMBER 27, 2019

Universal Honda Ltd is carrying out a voluntary recall on certain models of its Accord, Civic, CR-V, FR-V, Element, Jazz, Insight, Legend, Odyssey and Stream passenger vehicles.

These vehicles were manufactured between January 2001 and December 2015.

This recall affects 5,954 vehicles in the Republic of Ireland.

The safety issue identified, is that in the event of an impact where the airbag is deployed, the inflator part of the airbag may ignite, in such a manner, that it creates excessive internal pressure. As a result, the metal inflator casing may rupture causing metal fragments to be propelled through the airbag and into the vehicle compartment. This may result in injuries to vehicle occupants.
