Woodies DIY recall 'Mister Monitor' carbon monoxide alarms

📅 JANUARY 11, 2012

Woodie's DIY is recalling Mister Monitor Carbon Monoxide Alarms, Model Number MM -RCC-4261079026. This recall is taking place following a request from the supplier. Woodie's DIY is the only retailer in the Republic of Ireland who stocked these particular alarms.

The alarms were on sale in Woodie's DIY stores between Tuesday 20th December and Friday 23rd December, 2011. Woodie's are asking customers with the affected carbon monoxide alarm to return to the store for a refund or for an exchange.

What to do:

If you purchased one of these products, or gave one to a friend or relative, you should return it to the store for a refund or for an exchange.
